

Chiefs Shutout Farmingdale

The Chiefs 11-year-old White played at Farmingdale this past Sunday and shutout the Hawks 7-0. This brings their record to 5-1. The name of the game was defense and who would be the first to score. Happily it was the Chiefs.

The Chiefs led by Quarterback Thomas O'Connell was able to control the ball by passing to Blake Hargrove and Justin Johnson, and with the help of Running Backs Peter McCormack, Brian Smith, Ryan Eccher and Thomas Davis. This was done with the sound blocking of Andrew Hastings, Teddy Capsis, Michael Delio, Lucas Golon, Philip Ciuffo, Michael Husch, Steven Gessner and Gavin Dowd.

The Chiefs Defense needed everyone up on the line to stop the Hawks and was aggressive with pressure and tackling by John Clancy, Matthew Lafaye and Luis Costa. Davis, Johnson, and O'Connell made game saving open field tackles all over the field. An injured Mike Patalano was seen cheering on his teammates on the sidelines. Scoring is summarized below:

- Ryan Eccher 4 yard Touchdown Run (Thomas O'Connell xpoint Run)
