

Chiefs Tame Tigers

The Chiefs 11-year-old White played at home this past Sunday and tamed the Hempstead Tigers 18-6. This brings their winning record to 3-1. The Chiefs Offense had many opportunities because of the great play of their Defense, as they recovered three Hempstead Tiger fumbles, two recoveries by Thomas O'Connell and one recovery by Thomas Davis.

The Chiefs Offense led by Quarterback O'Connell was able move the ball with the help of Running Backs Justin Johnson, Peter McCormack, Brian Smith, Ryan Eccher and Davis. This was possible behind the solid blocking of Andrew Hastings, Teddy Capsis, Michael Delio, Lucas Golon, Philip Ciuffo, Michael Husch and Gavin Dowd.

The Chiefs Defense has improved week after week with aggressive tackling by the Defensive Line of John Clancy, Steven Gessner, Matthew Lafaye, Blake Hargrove, Luis Costa, Delio and Capsis. Linebackers O'Connell and Smith tackled with sudden impact, leaving Tigers lying all over the field.

Every 11-year-old played and participated in the win. A just operated on Chief, Michael Patalano was able to make the game and root on his teammates to victory. Scoring is summarized below:

- Johnson 30 yard Touchdown Run (xpoint kick failed)
- Capsis 2 yard Touchdown Run (xpoint kick failed)
- O'Connell 8 yard Touchdown Run (xpoint failed)
